The Offg. Senior Surgeon, in his letter No. C. 85-4 dated the 10th December 1921, recommends the appointment of Mr. C.G. Mahadeviah, M.B., B.S., of the Bombay University, as a Medical Graduate on Rs. 80-5-100 per mensem, to fill up the vacancy caused by the resignation of Mr. J.C. Noronha, Assistant Surgeon. The applicant is a native of Ahmedabad and is prepared to give an agreement of service for three years and the Senior Surgeon recommends his selection as no Mysore students are likely to complete their M.B., B.S. and become available for employment in the Medical Department within the next 12 or 16 months, and there is a shortage of hands in the Department at present.

When orders were about to issue in the matter, the Senior Surgeon wrote to say that one Mr. Mir Mira Rama Rao, a native of Mysore who was a Government Stipendary student for several years and had passed the L.M. & S., Examination of the Madras University, had applied for a post and recommended him for appointment as a Medical Graduate in preference to Mr. Mahadeviah.
